General Convention Gives Approval to Changes From Customs One Day Early for Century.

CREATE EXECUTIVE BOARD

Will Have General Charge of Church Work Greater Unity of Church Bodies Now Planned.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 22.—Three radical delegates from the old small church that has had the most pronounced break with the national church have set up the first executive committee, and in action to implement their radical ideas, have agreed to form a general church of the old school which will be known as the "Church of the Century." The new church will be composed of former members of the old school who have withdrawn from the national church, and of former members of the old school who have withdrawn from the new church.

The three radical delegates are Edward H. Smith, George W. Odell, and Frank J. O'Dell. They are seeking to bring about a reconciliation between the old school and the new school. They are to meet at the World War Hotel, with the former members of the old school, and present plans for creating the new church.

GOVERNOR SMITH OPENS FIGHT ON W. R. HEARST

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 22.—Governor Alfred E. Smith, Democrat, launched a scathing attack against William Randolph Hearst and the Hearst newspaper today. The assault was in the form of a speech delivered in Albany by the legislative leader of the reform wing of the state government. The governor said that the main issue of those years through the granting of increased powers to the states which are subject to some legislation, but not to the detail work of the federal government, within them is reflected in the recent state election.

When the governor returned to the capital from New York yesterday he issued a scathing rebuke of Hearst in returning to the state legislature. He declared that the Hearst press was the chief cause of the defeat of his bill to prohibit the sale of alcohol and tobacco products. He declared that the publication of the Hearst papers was responsible for the defeat of his bill.

REDUCE EXPORT BEEF RATE

Shipping Board Makes Cut According to Word of Tepeska.

TOKYO, Japan, Oct. 22.—The United States Shipping Board has ordered a reduction of $1 a hundred on the shipping rate for export beef to continental Europe, according to a telegram received today by Joseph Merton from Senator Arthur Capper. This reduction will help in steady the price market and assist materially in the export trade, Mr. Merton stated.
